

No 1 Sep/Oct 2025

DAG DIGEST

Tickets are available for our next three productions

Bookings are open and flyers are attached, for the following -

Aladdin pantomime - 15th to 23rd November

A new version of this classic pantomime by Ben Crocker directed by Jacky Fletcher.
Fun for all the family!

Murder Mystery evening – Saturday 18th October. Following on from last year's successful Murder Mystery evening, we will be back again for one night only with 'Death after Dinner' and it promises to be another entertaining evening! - written by Steve Goddard.

Colonel Gatling's Old Time Music Hall – under new Management!! -11th to 13th December
The pre-Christmas Music Hall has been resting for a few years but they are returning this year under new management! – including the usual scrumptious buffet supper!

You are advised to book early for the above – to avoid disappointment!

AUDITIONS

'SUDDENLY AT HOME' by Frances Durbridge - directed by Sue Saville. Tuesday 14th October from 7.30 p.m

A man plans to murder his wealthy wife. Surprises, shocks and many twists in this classic drama.

Go to www.dewsburyartsgroup.info for full information and audition pieces.

Please book a time slot for your audition with the Director Sue Saville on 07866087985 or email sue.saville39@btinternet.com

“LUST” by The Heather Brothers directed by David Fletcher

Tuesday 28th October from 7.30

Pre Auditions sing through Tuesday 7th October 7.30

A truly hilarious musical based on Wycherley’s ‘The Country Wife’. Side-splitting fun - but this show does contain material of an adult nature! Previously presented by DAG in 1996, with The Yorkshire Post saying: “This fast-moving piece floods over the audience and leaves them gasping in amazement at its sheer effrontery and the laughter-filled audience is left yelling for more”.

Please book a time slot for your audition with the director David Fletcher on 07906 405613 or email: thornhillfletch1@gmail.com

New Committee

Following the Annual General Meeting, please see attached notice with details of our newly elected committee.

Programme planning for 2026/2027

Request for Directors

As this season is off to a great start with ‘Dangerous Corner’, our programme planning team are already beginning to look towards next season!.

If you’re interested in directing next season please let us know, with the title and author of the production you’d like to put forward to direct. If you do not have a production in mind but still interested in directing, have an idea for a one night event or would like to suggest a good show you’d like to see the group perform, please also contact us. We would also like to hear any ideas for Art exhibitions for the 2026/2027 season.

Please contact (by 31st October at the latest) David Fletcher, email – thornhillfletch1@gmail.com

Season Ticket and/or Group Membership fees.

Many thanks to all those who have paid their membership fee and /or for season tickets.

Just a reminder these fees are now due as we start the new season and how you can pay..

Online to our Virgin Account

Dewsbury Arts Group

Sort code 05-04-09

Account No 17983163

Please add your Season Ticket/Group Membership number, as reference

Season group membership number - (e.g. PA123 the number you use to book your tickets on Ticket Source)

Group Membership number (e.g. M12)

If you prefer you can send a cheque to Emma Thomson, 18 Cambridge Road
Birstall, WF1 9JE and include your reference number.

Season ticket £85 (£50 for single season ticket)

Group Membership £25

Dates for your diary

OCTOBER

- Lust Pre Audition sing through 7th
- Auditions for Suddenly at home 14th
- Murder Mystery evening 18th
- Auditions Lust 28th

NOVEMBER

- Aladdin 15th to 23rd

DECEMBER

- Music Hall 11th to 13th