

No 3 Jan 2026

DAG DIGEST

Wishing you all A Happy New Year

Suddenly at home by Francis Durbridge.

Bookings are now open for our next production! Directed by Susan Saville.

Francis Durbridge is known for his mysteries and “cliff-hanger” endings, especially the Paul Temple series for radio and tv.

Suddenly at home is classed as his most famous stage play!

Glenn Howard is a womanising charmer, who plots to murder his wealthy wife for her money and another woman. A story of greed, murder and manipulation, full of unexpected twists and turns that will keep you guessing right to the very end!

From 7th to 14th March (no performance Monday) and please note the 7th and 8th are matinee performances.

flyer attached with booking information

Quiz Night - Friday 13th February, 7 30 p.m. for 8 p.m

This is set to be another fun night in the bar!

Please contact Maria Bailey if you would like to organise a round or you intend coming long. mariab642@gmail.com phone 07586 297492

That's all for now!

Dates for your diary

Quiz Friday - 13th February

Suddenly at home - 7th to 14th March