A rollicking hilarious Pantomime which this year gives the opportunity for the more mature ladies in DAG to be involved. Treasure Island requires a large cast and, as the Panto is one of the Group's major income sources, it is hoped that as many of the adult members of the Group as possible will get involved. And, so as not to deplete the number of front of house volunteers, it is hoped that the cast will also be responsible for front of house duties!!

Follow the adventures of Jim Hawkins and Long John Silver as they set out on their quest for hidden treasure. Long John Silver and his crew may be dastardly villains, but they've reckoned without the Ladies of the Smuggler's Cove Women's Institute, who all want to be Pirates in panto this year! Cue total chaos and expect cake baking, spotted dick and Polly, the aged Parrot, who just wants to sit on Long John's shoulder.

Period: 19th Century

Set: 5 full sets - 5 on tabs

Costumes: Usual pantomime - impressive and traditional costumes.

Props: Lots of them to make the set pieces work.

Sound: Musical backings plus typical panto sound effects.

Lighting : Extensive lighting plot
